

KIDS COUNT - a joint project of the Annie E. Casey Foundation and Kansas Action for Children - provides statistical data on the education, health and economic well-being of Kansas children and their families. Utilizing KIDS COUNT, policymakers and community leaders are empowered to make data-driven decisions that will improve the lives of Kansas children and ensure the future prosperity of our state.

KIDS COUNT is made possible in Marion County through our county partner, Communities In Schools of Marion County, Inc.

HELPING KIDS STAY IN SCHOOL AND PREPARE FOR LIFE

CIS of Marion County is a local non-profit organization dedicated to authentic collaboration for the purpose of increasing access to needed resources for children birth through high school age and their families. Active partners include local government; social service agencies; early childhood programs and services; the 8th Judicial District; Prairie View Mental Health; the Regional Prevention Center of the Flint Hills; the five Marion County Unified School Districts: USD 397, USD 398, USD 408, USD 410, USD 411; SRS and the Kansas Children's Cabinet; and others interested in the well-being of children, youth and families. Initiatives include comprehensive early childhood services; support for research-based prevention strategies; opportunities for youth involvement and empowerment; coalition capacity-building through education and training; resource development; and implementation of environmental approaches to create community change.
